

AERO PRECISION SIGNS WHEEL AND BRAKE DISTRIBUTION AGREEMENT

Livermore, CA - June 20, 2011 - Aero Precision has been selected as an authorized channel partner by Honeywell (NYSE:HON) under a stocking distributor agreement which designates Aero Precision as the sole stocking distributor for the sale and distribution of Honeywell F-18 wheel and brake and detailed piece parts worldwide excluding Japan, until December 31, 2013.

A stocking distributor for over 18 years, Aero Precision has been selling Honeywell products since 1994. "This agreement gives us the ability to better serve our customers' needs and provides a very effective foreign military sales (FMS) alternative. As the sole distributor, this agreement allows Aero Precision to invest in significant inventory to support our customers around the world with off the shelf deliveries to meet urgent mission requirements," explained Justin Gross, Director of SC for Aero Precision.
