

AERO PRECISION SIGNS F-15 WHEEL AND BRAKE DISTRIBUTION AGREEMENT

Farnborough, UK – July 21, 2010 – Aero Precision has been selected as an authorized channel partner by Honeywell. Under the stocking distributor agreement, Aero Precision is designated as the sole stocking distributor for the sale and distribution of Honeywell F-15 Wheel & Brake and detailed piece parts worldwide, excluding Japan, through December 31, 2012.

As a stocking distributor for over 17 years, Aero Precision has been selling Honeywell products since 1994. “Aero Precision’s agreement with Honeywell gives us the ability to better serve our customers’ needs and provides a very effective FMS alternative. As the sole distributor, this agreement allowed Aero Precision to invest in a significant inventory to support our customers around the world with off the shelf deliveries to meet urgent mission requirements,” explains Angel Flores, VP of Sales for Aero Precision.
